McAuliffe Hits Judge McNutt's Attack On Cowgill; Juvenile Home Plan Approved

Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe, member of the San Mateo County Probation Committee, on Tuesday rebuked Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt for the severe reprimand he gave Probation Officer John S. (Sid) Cowgill Monday when he recommended probation for Playboy Gerald Melone.

Judge McAuliffe at a meeting of the probation committee in the afternoon declared that the feud between Judge McNutt and Judge Aylette R. Cotton, who appointed Cowgill to the probation post formerly held by Francis J. Robinson, was common knowledge and said he felt the attack on Cowgill was directed at Judge Cotton.

Judge McAuliffe expressed resentment that Judge McNutt "took it out" on Cowgill to get at Judge Cotton.

The probation committee yesterday approved plans for the proposed new juvenile home to be located west of Belmont adjacent to the County Relief Home. Estimated cost of the proposed home is $125,000. Only $25,000 has been set up in the county budget for the home. No explanation was forthcoming where the rest of the money would be secured.

Selection of a new chairman to replace Joseph Leo Hyman, who died unexpectedly Monday morning and was buried this morning, was deferred until the January meeting of the committee. Judge McAuliffe presided at yesterday's meeting. J. Ed McClellan of Burlingame, named by Judge Cotton to replace Col. Charles N. Kirkbride of San Mateo, who resigned last week, was seated.

A resolution honoring Mr. Hyman was drawn up by the committee.

Meantime, possibility that a memorial home will be established at the new juvenile home in Mr. Hyman's honor was seen today with the offer of money from friends for such a memorial. Probation Officer Cowgill reported. Mr. Hyman was one of the staunchest backers of the new juvenile home.

The plans for the new juvenile home will be sent to Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of the County Dept. of Public Health and Welfare, under whose jurisdiction operation of the juvenile home comes, for approval. They then will be sent to the board of supervisors.

The one-story fireproof building will be of Spanish architecture, if present plans are adopted. The probation committee asked that a name other than juvenile or detention be selected for the new home.

The home will have 14 rooms for boys, eight rooms for girls, two isolation rooms on one side for delin-

Joseph L. Hyman Funeral Held

Funeral services were held this week for Joseph Leo Hyman, 47, chairman of the San Mateo County Probation Committee and resident of Emerald Lake for six years. Mr. Hyman, San Francisco attorney, died of a heart attack at the Palo Alto Hospital Monday.

Services were conducted by Roll-er & Hapgood Mortuary of Palo Alto from the Home of Peace Chapel in Colma, followed by interment in the Home of Peace Cemetery. Mr. Hyman, a native San Franciscoan, was a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and the Harvard Law School. He was president of the Children's Protective Society and a member of the Pacific Lodge A. and M. in San Francisco.

Plans at the court house were at half past Monday in Mr. Hyman's honor. Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton's son, Aylett B. Cotton, and Mr. Hyman were law partners in San Francisco.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Zella A. Hyman of Redwood City; two children, Stephen and Barbara Hyman of San Francisco; a brother, Samuel Lightner Hyman and a sister, Mrs. Helen Greenberg, both of San Francisco.

Navy Urges More Use Of V-Mail for Overseas

Twelfth Naval District postal officials today appealed to the public to use more V-mail in writing to men overseas and thus prevent mail service to the battle zones from bogging down.

Expanding operations and increased personnel in the Pacific necessitate turning over much of the plane space to emergency cargo and medical supplies, which often squeeze out space originally allotted to bulky sacks of regular air mail.

On the other hand, officials explained, the compactness of V-mail a roll of which contains 1750 letters and weighs four ounces, allows for fast and efficient shipment by air.

quents, and eight rooms and two isolation rooms on the other side of the building for dependents.

Shopping Styles Undergo Change

Starting today, Mrs. Redwood City Shopper is going to find shopping styles changed.

According to Frank DePatta, city salvage chairman, a "paper holiday" which will start Dec. 15 will see the end of all unnecessary paper wrappings.

"Only those items which must be wrapped for sanitary or protective reasons will be wrapped by Redwood City stores," DePatta announced. "The housewife is expected to bring her own shopping bag and to neither ask for nor accept any package with unnecessary wrapping."

The "paper holiday," approved by the merchants' section of the chamber of commerce, has been invoked at the request of the War Production Board, DePatta said.

"Unlike other shortages, the paper problem shows no evidence of immediate solution even when the war in Europe comes to a successful close. Enormous quantities of food, equipment and medical supplies will be needed overseas for our service men, and all these shipments require paper or paperboard for packing," DePatta warned.

"In Redwood City we are glad to declare this paper holiday, because this extra sacrifice will make us more keenly aware of our own civilian shortage and of the great need for paper in the successful prosecution of the war."

J. S. Baker Leaves Estate to Daughter

James S. Baker, 62, who died Dec. 2, left half of his estate which exceeds $10,000 to his stepdaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hover, 949 Bayshore Hwy., Burlingame, and the remainder to Mrs. Hover's son, Ronald Eugene Hover, it was disclosed today with the filing of a petition for probate of his will in superior court here.

The estate consists of property in San Mateo, San Benito and Santa Cruz Counties. The will was dated Apr. 3, 1943.

Asks Probation In Robbery Case

Mrs. Marian Ethridge, 19, of Long Beach, wife of a soldier, who last week pleaded not guilty to a charge of robbery, has changed her plea to guilty and asked for probation.

Judge Andrew R. Schottky of Mariposa County, sitting for Judge A. R. Cotton, set Dec. 20 as the date for a report from Probation Officer John S. Cowgill.

Mrs. Ethridge was in the automobile driven by Ralph W. Goslaw, 21, of Long Beach, when he held up Francis D. Hansen of Redwood City, operator of the Mohawk Service Station on El Camino Real at Greenwood Ave., San Carlos, on Nov. 5. Goslaw was convicted and has been sent to San Quentin.

News of Commuters

Approach of the holidays is always a trying time for commuters. Not only does the city's normally bad transit system virtually collapse under the weight of holiday traffic, but the Peninsula trains and buses also feel the impact of the yule season bulge.

 We had a sample of this Saturday. After fighting the battle of Third-and-Kearny Sts., and missing the 2:15 train, we climbed aboard the 3:05 fully 10 minutes before leaving time, and found every seat taken and the aisles of the 4-coach train jammed solid. We know a lot of people were not able to get on the train at all, and they had the choice of either waiting an hour for the 4:05 or fighting their way back up town in the hopes of getting on a bus. The shed and yards were full of empty coaches, and we couldn't figure out why the S.P. wasn't able to anticipate and handle this traffic. After all, these holidays have been occurring every December for the past 100 years.

 Clarence Brizee tells of seeing Wrex Cruse perched on the cow catcher of a broken-down unit of the city's alleged transportation system, hoping thereby to get to Third and Townsend in time to catch a train. The car was literally bulging with passengers and others were standing in the street hoping to get on. Just then a member of the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce traffic study committee happened along and asked Wrex (himself a prominent member of the chamber) what he thought of "San Francisco's unified transportation system." Brizee says Cruse's reply was unprintable.

 Secretary McKeehan suggested we comment on Mayor Lapham's proposal of a subway or "tube" system down the Peninsula to take care of commuter traffic. We're afraid to comment, for fear that, too, might prove unprintable. We have never been so disappointed in any administration in our life. After all his big talk and promises, Lapham has failed utterly to solve the city's transportation problem. It has grown steadily worse instead of better. Thousands of vital man-hours are lost to the war effort every day in San Francisco because people simply cannot get to and from their jobs.

 This is more than one man's opinion. Dr. Henry F. Grady, when he was elected president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce recently stated in his speech of acceptance: "San Francisco's transportation system is a public disgrace." Let us hope that by virtue of Dr. Grady's eminence and prestige, he will have influence enough in his new position to do something about this "disgrace."

 Meanwhile every commuter who can read and write (and most of them can) should take pen in hand and write to Mayor Lapham, the San Francisco Utility Commission, and to Dr. Henry F. Grady, care of the chamber of commerce, and demand adequate transportation facilities in San Francisco. Remember, "the wheel that squeaks the loudest is the one that gets the grease." Yell loud enough and you will get results.

Quickie Dinners for Busy Shoppers

GOING TO put in a full day soon, holiday shopping? Then you won't want to worry about preparing dinner after you get home! Here are some suggestions for good meals that can be prepared the day before, for the most part, and then served in a jiffy.

For example, build a dinner around

LIMA BEAN CHOWDER

Pick over and wash 1½ cups lima beans, and put them in a 4-qt. kettle with enough water to more than cover. Cook slowly, covered, until tender (about 2 hours). Mash the beans and add 1 cup finely chopped onion, 1 cup finely diced carrots, 1 cup thinly sliced celery, salt and pepper to taste. Cook until vegetables are tender (about 20 minutes). Add 2 cups milk and ¼ cup finely cut parsley, and heat to boiling. (Quantities given provide 6 cups of chowder. Double them for 12 cups.) This can be quickly reheated for shopping-day dinner.

With it, serve a cabbage salad, French bread or crisp toast, and follow with reheated gingerbread and applesauce or baked apples.

MEDITERRANEAN CASSEROLE

is the foundation for another good dinner! Have it all ready for baking, so you can pop it into the oven the minute you get home from shopping.

Boil ½ lb. uncooked wide noodles or spaghetti in large amount of rapidly boiling salted water until tender; drain. Brown 3 tbsps. minced onion in 1 tbsp. hot shortening; add 1 lb. ground round steak and ½ lb. ground pork steak and cook until well separated, stirring frequently. Add 2 cups whole kernel corn, 1 cup concentrated tomato soup or strained tomatoes, salt and pepper to taste. Mix together all ingredients with 1 cup grated American cheese, in well greased 2-qt. casserole. For final preparation, bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 45 minutes. Serves 6 to 8, generously.

With it, serve apple-and-celery salad, toast or hot bread or rolls, and follow with a fruited gelatin dessert and cookies.

MAY KNEW A WAY!

I HAVEN'T BOUGHT MANY CHRISTMAS GIFTS, MAY, BUT I'LL SWEAR I DON'T KNOW HOW WE'RE GOING TO MAKE OUT!

I THOUGHT YOU WERE CAREFUL WITH MONEY, DOT?

I AM—BUT IT COSTS A LOT TO LIVE, THESE DAYS. WE'LL HARDLY HAVE ENOUGH TO EAT ON THIS MONTH.

THAT REMINDS ME, DOT: MY NEIGHBOR AND I...

...HAVE BEEN KEEPING A RECORD OF HOW MUCH WE SPEND FOR FOOD. HER METHOD WAS TO GO SHOPPING AROUND AT DIFFERENT STORES, WHILE I BUY ALL OUR FOOD AT ONE PLACE. AFTER TWO MONTHS...

...SHE FOUND SHE WAS SPENDING SO MUCH MORE, FOR THE SAME QUALITY, THAT NOW WE BOTH DO ALL OUR FOOD SHOPPING AT SAFEWAY!

WHY, MAY, WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME BEFORE I'M GOING TO LET SAFEWAY HELP SOLVE MY MONEY WORRIES, TOO!
